

YOUTH HERITAGE PROJECT

MOUNT RAINIER NATIONAL PARK • JULY 13-16, 2016

WHAT IS YOUTH HERITAGE PROJECT (YHP)? YHP is an annual 4-day (overnight) heritage field school that engages high school students and teachers by connecting them to historic, cultural, and natural resources in Washington. YHP is designed to introduce historic preservation to youth and excite the next generation that will advocate for historic places.

PRESERVATION • HISTORY • EXPLORATION

LEARN about the history of Mount Rainier and the Longmire Historic District

ANALYZE planning strategies for historic districts within national parks

EXPLORE the importance of national parks and why they were established

CELEBRATE the 100th anniversary of the National Park Service (NPS)

FREE for students and teachers to attend

Apply online: preservewa.org/discoverwashingtoneyhp.aspx

Applications are due FRIDAY, MAY 20, 2016.

Questions? Contact Jennifer Mortensen at 206-624-9449 or jmortensen@preservewa.org. And, a huge thanks to our generous program partners and sponsors for making it possible for us to offer YHP at no cost to our participants:

Be sure to "like" YHP on Facebook for updates and reminders: facebook.com/discoverwashingtoneyhp.