San Juan ISLANDS

Welcome Guests!

We are pleased to partner with you for an enjoyable trip as we welcome visitors back to San Juan County. To ensure your safety and comfort, our businesses, parks and public entities have thoughtfully and thoroughly prepared for your arrival. We are asking you to do your part to help make our tourism restart successful and sustainable by following our suggested checklist for a safe and enjoyable visit. Thanks so much for keeping us all healthy!

PLEASE REMEMBER TO: ☑ PLAN

☐ Familiarize yourself with current Washington State and San Juan County rules and regulations on our travel advisory page: www.visitsanjuans.com/travel-advisory.

☐ Check our website for ideas on planning your stay: www.visitsanjuans.com.

☐ Make reservations for lodging, moorage, camping, dining, tours and activities. When in doubt, call or email.

☐ Find out what businesses are open on our travel advisory page: www.visitsanjuans.com/travel-advisory.

☐ Check with your host/hotel about rules for pools, fitness centers and common areas for guests–some services and areas may be unavailable.

☐ Stay home if you feel ill. We have an older, vulnerable population and limited rural health care facilities.

PACK

☐ Cloth face coverings or masks, and a bag to keep them in when not wearing.

☐ Hand sanitizer or disinfectant wipes, gloves, if you so desire (and maybe a thermometer).

☐ "Leave no Trace" when enjoying the outdoors – pack it in, pack it out: www.visitsanjuans.com/leave-no-trace

PREPARE

☐ Practice social distancing guidelines–stay 6 feet apart.

☐ Wear a face covering inside all businesses and public places.

☐ Public restrooms maybe closed or limited. Bring your own supplies.

☐ Adjust to limits in number of people in a space, such as restaurants or tour boats.

☐ Please be patient and kind, new policies may make things take longer.

☐ Subscribe to our monthly e-news to receive updates & information! www.visitsanjuans.com

We wish you a warm welcome and thank you for doing your part to support the health of our community.

San Juan ISLANDS
VISITORS BUREAU